DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER COLLECTION DISCLOSURE – You are required by law to provide your social security number or your application will be denied.

“Your social security number will be collected pursuant to California Business and Professions Code Section 30. It is used in the administration of occupational licensing laws to determine eligibility for issuance or renewal of an occupational license subject to the applicable provisions of the California Vehicle Code, California Business and Professions Code Sections 29.5, 30 and 31, as well as California Welfare and Institutions Code Section 11350.6. It is also used to aid in the collection of monies owed in connection with failure to pay a fine or failure to appear in court by an applicant; and to aid in the collection of monies owed by an applicant in connection with Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Child Support and Establishment of paternity and Federal Payments for Foster Care and Adoption Assistance Programs, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Section 405 and 42 U.S.C. Section 651 et seq.

Your social number is not provided for public inspection; however, it will be provided in response to requests for information from state and federal agencies operating and involved in the collection of taxes and child support payments pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 601 et seq., and California Business and Professions Code Section 30.

Collection of your social security number is mandatory. Failure to furnish the information requested will result in denial of processing an application for issuance or renewal of an occupational license or permit, pursuant to Business and Professions Code Section 30, subdivision(c).”

Please be advised that you may not reapply for a license until a period of one year has elapsed since a previous license for which you are applying now has been revoked, refused, or denied pursuant to California Vehicle Code Sections 11810(d), 11903(c), and 11107(c).
